

Sundays @ the J with George and friends

Join Dr. Krauss and poets
Natalie Safir, Tony Howarth, and Ann Gulian

They will read published as well as new work.

Date: Sunday, November 25, 2018
Time: 1:30 PM – 3:30 PM
Location: Legacy Building Library, Shames JCC on the Hudson
Fees: Members free; Non-Members $10

Natalie Safir has been publishing poems in national literary journals such as Slant, Pivot, MidAmerican Review, Rhino, Natural Bridge, The MacGuffin, Connecticut River Review, ForPoetry.com, etc. since the 1980's and "Matisse's Dance" has been anthologized in college texts by The McGraw Hill Co. and in Art & Artists, Everyman edition, Knopf, 2012. In 2017 her poem "Roadtrip West" was read by Garrison Keillor on NPR Radio. Her books published are Moving into Seasons, 1981, To Face the Inscription, 1987, La Jolla Poets Press; Made Visible in 1998, Singular Speech Press; and A Clear Burning, 2004. Her collection: Love like Snow, 2010 was a special edition of Fithian Press, and the latest collection: Eyewitness, published by Dos Madres Press, 2016. She is currently working on a chapbook titled: "Overnight in the Guesthouse of My Body".

Tony Howarth, a playwright, director, former journalist, retired in 1991 after 28 years as a high school teacher of English and theatre at Woodlands High School. He began writing poetry in 2009 after a visit to William Wordsworth's Dove Cottage, in England's Lake District. His home base is the Hudson Valley Writers Center in Sleepy Hollow.

Ann Gulian is a Westchester-based actor, singer and songwriter. She is a member of the Axial Theatre Company and Westchester Collaborative Theater Company. Her film and TV credits include Bull (CBS), Falling Water (USA Network), and Show Me a Hero (HBO). Ann is also a featured member of the Jazz Quintet Les Hommes de Cave.

Visit www.shamesjcc.org for more information about other Sundays at the J with George and Friends
Next program is January 27, 2019.

Pick up a copy of our full Fall Program Guide at the Shames JCC Welcome Desks.

914.366.7898
371 South Broadway
Tarrytown, NY 10591
www.shamesjcc.org

Move! Learn!
Connect!