

A Rivertowns Conversation with Edmund Case: Engaging Interfaith Families for a Thriving Jewish Future

Sunday, November 4, 2018

9:30 AM – 11:30 AM Breakfast will be served

Shames JCC on the Hudson
371 South Broadway, Tarrytown
Youth Lounge

Everyone is Welcome!

Why do some interfaith families engage with the Jewish community more than others?

Are there identifiable barriers that need to be eliminated to encourage engagement and to enrich communal life for all?

Please join the Rivertowns Jewish Consortium (RJC) for a discussion led by Ed Case, a nationally known speaker and writer on interfaith issues and an advocate for interfaith families' Jewish engagement.

Radically Inclusive Judaism: Engaging Interfaith Families for a Thriving Jewish Future, author Ed Case

We welcome your participation in a thoughtful community conversation about the pathways to engagement of interfaith families for a thriving Jewish future.

RSVP to RJC@shamesjcc.org. Please include your name, the number of people attending, the name of your synagogue, as well as any questions you would like the presenter to consider during his Q&A section.

Rivertowns Jewish Consortium (RJC): Greenburgh Hebrew Center, Woodlands Community Temple, Mishkan Ha'am, Rosh Pinah Chavurah, Temple Beth Shalom, Temple Beth Abraham, Shames JCC on the Hudson.

914.366.7898
371 South Broadway
Tarrytown, NY 10591
www.shamesjcc.org

Move! Learn!
Connect!