Passover

Matzo is unleavened bread that is eaten during Passover.

A haggadah is a service guide for the Passover seder.

The seder plate has symbolic foods for the Passover seder.

Jews were slaves in Egypt.

The Jews did not have much time to get ready before leaving Egypt.

Moses helped lead to Jewish people to freedom.

A green vegetable such as parsley is dipped into salt water during the seder. This reminds us of the tears of the slaves.

There was a cruel pharaoh in Egypt.

Frogs were one of the 10 plagues God sent to convince Pharaoh to let the Jewish people go free.

God split the waters of the Red sea so that the Jewish people could escape from pharaoh.

Charoset is a mixture of fruit, nuts and spices. It represents the mortar that the Hebrew slaves used to build with.

Wild animals were one of the 10 plagues God sent to convince Pharaoh to let the Jewish people go free.

An egg is a symbol of spring and represents the sacrifice made in biblical times.

Hail was one of the 10 plagues God sent to convince Pharaoh to let the Jewish people go free.

We say a blessing over 4 glasses of wine or grape juice at the Passover seder.

No bread or leavened food is eaten during Passover.

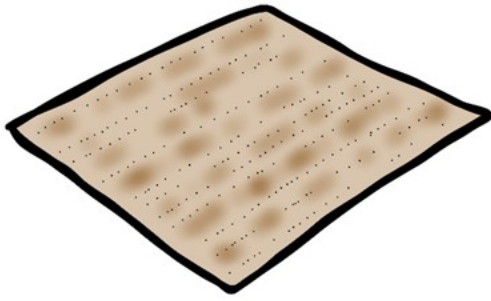

Elijah's cup is filled with wine. We open the door during the seder and welcome Elijah in to take a sip.

The afikoman is the middle piece of matzo. It is hidden and later eaten to end the seder.
